See Appendix A: Response to a Protected Disclosure: Schedule of Process Steps

1. ADVICE REGARDING DISCLOSURE OF SUSPECTED WRONGDOING OR IRREGULARITY UNDER THIS POLICY
 - a. Any current or former member of the University community who is unsure if a situation involving the University is one that should be reported using the procedures of the Protected Disclosure Policy, or any other KPU policy, shall seek guidance from his/her supervisor, the next level supervisor, or any University official. It is the responsibility of the person consulted to seek out and provide the best advice s/he is able to the member of the University community.

2. PROCEDURES FOR DISCLOSURE UNDER THIS POLICY

- a. Any current or former member of the University community who observes or becomes aware of conduct they reasonably believe constitutes wrongdoing or irregularity is encouraged to make a disclosure in writing as soon as possible after the discloser becomes aware of the situation, providing as much detail as possible to facilitate thorough investigation. Information provided anonymously will not be acted upon unless sufficient detail is provided by the discloser and the information is independently substantiated.
- b. Recognizing that circumstances will influence how a person chooses to disclose suspected wrongdoing or irregularity, KPU provides four (4) different options:
 - i. Employees are encouraged to make their disclosure to their appropriate supervisor; students and other persons connected to KPU are encouraged to make their disclosure to any University official.
 - ii. If the alleged wrongdoing should involve a supervisor, the disclosure may be made to the next appropriate supervisory level, or to a vice-president, or to the Office of the President.
 - iii. Should the alleged wrongdoing involve the President or vice presidents, the disclosure may be made to the Chair of Audit Committee of the Board of Governors.
 - iv. Disclosures may also be made to the confidential external service retained by KPU to receive such disclosures. (KPU Listens)

- e. All disclosures made under this policy, regardless of the option chosen for disclosure, will be logged as soon as they are received on a single tracking system, and will be reported by the Director, Business Performance and Advisory Services to the Audit Committee of the Board of Governors during all Committee meetings.

If, upon completion of the preliminary review, the Director determines that an investigation is warranted it will be initiated as soon as possible.
- b. The Director, Business Performance and Advisory Services may decide not to proceed with an investigation under this policy or to stop an investigation at any time when:

 - f. In circumstances where either the discloser or the person who is alleged to have committed the wrongdoing involves both the University and any affiliated or associated entity, the President will communicate with directors of the affiliated or associated entity to determine how to proceed with any investigation if deemed necessary.
 - g. Investigations will be completed as quickly as possible, preferably within three (3) calendar months of the appointment of the investigators, and will be conducted in accordance with the requirements of any legislation, or applicable collective or other agreements in effect at the time of the investigation. The investigators may use the services of appropriate professionals should this seem advisable.
 - h. The investigators will have access to all relevant University premises and records. Investigators are entitled to request a confidential meeting with any member of the University community who may have knowledge of the matter. All members of the University community are expected to provide full cooperation with the investigators subject only to legal rights including those under relevant collective or other agreements in effect at the time of the investigation. - c. Any person who experiences harassment, threats, retaliation, or discrimination as a result of making a disclosure of wrongdoing in the context of this policy should immediately inform any senior University official or the Chair of Audit Committee of the Board of Governors.
- d. The University recognizes that making disclosures of wrongdoing can be stressful and encourages employees who wish to do so to contact the Employee Assistance Program through which they can confidentially access external counseling services.

5. PROCEDURES TO PROTECT THE PERSON BEING INVESTIGATED

- a. All persons named in or affected by a disclosure will be treated fairly and consistently regardless of their position or the number of years employed by the University, and all reasonable steps will be taken to protect their identity. They will maintain the rights, privileges and protections afforded to them through applicable legislation, University policies, and collective agreements in effect at the time of the disclosure.
- b. Where facts gathered during the investigation provide a reasonable indication that wrongdoing or an irregularity has occurred, the respondent(s) will be given a full opportunity to respond in writing to the allegations and to meet with the investigators. The respondent(s) will subsequently be advised of the general outcome of the investigation.
- c. An innocent respondent or a respondent who commits an innocent violation shall not be subject to retaliation or discipline, and the University shall take all reasonable steps to protect the position, reputation, privacy, and confidentiality of such respondents.

This will take place within four (4) months of receipt of the disclosure by the Director, Business Performance and Advisory Services. If extraordinary circumstances make it necessary, an interim report may be provided that explains the need for additional time.
- b. Where there is sufficient evidence that wrongdoing or an irregularity may have occurred, the Office of the President, or appropriate vice-president, or associate vice-president of Human Resources will provide to the respondent(s) written summary of the results of the investigation. The respondent(s) have fifteen (15) working days to provide a written response to the written summary. This response will be shared with the Director, Business Performance and Advisory Services, appropriate senior University officials and the President.
- c. Any actions arising from the investigation will normally be determined by the President on the advice of senior University officials. Should circumstances be such that this is not the appropriate body, then the Audit Committee of the Board of Governors will make the determination. Relevant information may be turned over to law enforcement authorities in circumstances where that action is deemed to be appropriate.
