ACCESS PROGRAMS DEPARTMENT

Employment and Community Studies Program

OVERVIEW

The Employment and Community Studies (EACS) Program is for students with diverse learning needs that hinder educational success.

EACS courses and learning experiences will prepare students for lifelong learning, employment, and community engagement opportunities.

PARTICIPATION OPTIONS

The students in EACS have the option to choose:

- » Which courses they take
- » How they will take courses (part-time or full-time, online or in person, or a combination)
- » To seek a credential or just take a course or two

CREDENTIALS

Completion of the EACS Program leads to a Citation in Employment and Community Studies at KPU. Credit courses include:

- » Employability Skills
- » Career Exploration
- » Work Experience
- » Introduction to Disability Rights
- » Social Justice in Action

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The EACS Program requires that future students:

- 1 Attend an EACS Program Information Session in-person or online (see how below)
- 2 Participate in an interview with program faculty to determine:
 - Fit for the academic program
 - Satisfactory English ability as assessed according to departmental guidelines

INFORMATION SESSIONS
